2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Best NP Maps By Liz-ard I own one of the National Geographic Maps for every National Park I visit (some visited many times). I have at least 20. Waterproof, tough, very good detail, topographic, etc. If your backpacking or canoe touring like I do OR just driving the roads and looking at the Geyser Basins in Yellowstone =s a must have item in your car map bin. 10 star. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Good map with fairly accurate trail distances By Chris Clark Good map with fairly accurate trail distances. However, the distances for trails that are shown in provincial Parks were not given that was somewhat frustrating because we were hiking through those parks on a multi day trip. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful.
