By Trichelle Winkler
While this book is an excellent read for travellers, it is full of life lessons that are applicable to anyone anywhere in the world. I have longed for a life of globe trotting but always found an excuse to keep me from that dream, in fact excuses to keep me from ANY dream. After reading Liz's personal story of making her dreams a reality I am ready to live the life I only ever dared to dream.

By Pam Lareaux
A wonderful travel guide. This book brings a new approach to traveling the world through her personal experiences and insight. Her advice is meant for the traveler who is willing to step outside their comfort zone and see the world outside the traditional way. This book not only encourages the reader to take risks but inspires the would be traveler that wants to see the world on a shoestring. I look forward to using her advice the next time I have the opportunity to travel.
