Catherine David, Asghar Farhadi : Beatrice Minda: Iran, Interrupted before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Beatrice Minda: Iran, Interrupted:

German photographer Beatrice Minda (born 1968) explores the relationship between domestic space, memory and history. Following her previous volume, Inner World, which depicted Romanian interiors, this volume portrays the homes of Iranian citizens, in similarly exquisite yet highly informal fashion.
