WonderfulBy Ghida KaddahThis is an astounding photographic journey from down town Beirut's yesteryears to date. On one side we have a photo of a destroyed building or alley, on the other, the alley or building as it stands now, rebuilt and reborn. Like the phoenix risen from its own ashes, so is Down town Beirut, and this is what this book illustrates. It shows the saga of one man's dream...Rafik Hariri's determination and strength that rebuilt this ancient city. Ayman Trawi is an amazing photographer, and this is clear from his meticulous work. It is also worth mentioning that this book has been awarded the Guinness award for the world's largest book ever- a replica of this book (304 pages that are 3.85 meters wide and 2.77 meters tall weighing in at 1060 kgs) has been awarded this prestigious award this year. I strongly recommend this book for everyone, as it is a beautiful reminder of the strength of the human spirit to overcome adversity and to rebuild, a reminder that even in the darkest hour man can and will persevere.

It looks like the book is written in three different languages.HardcoverPublisher: BANQUE DE LA MEDITERRANEE (2004)ASIN: B000R0HULA Product Dimensions: 9.1 x 6.6 x 1.1 inches Shipping Weight: 1.6
